

ESDR guidelines for the use of ESDR's name and logo

The European Society for Dermatological Research (ESDR)'s name and logo are the property of the ESDR. They cannot be used in any way, for any purpose or at any time without the express written permission of the ESDR -including, but not limited to announcements, invitations, emails, web publications, printed documents.

The logo can only be used as designed (no change in the logo will be accepted) and any use of ESDR's name must be approved by the ESDR Office. A copy or sample of any approved material including ESDR's name or logo created for distribution or promotion by a partner must be sent to the ESDR Office for informational purposes.

Please contact Léa Selosse, Communications and Marketing Manager at the ESDR Office lea@esdr.org with any questions you may have.
